DRIVER REASSESSMENT FORM

Any driver that has let his/her licence lapse for over five [5] years will need to complete a reassessment drive. The applicant should complete the below information and return to the BHRC Office, along with any necessary fees. The applicant should advise the BHRC Office of the date and track at which they intend to be present to complete a demonstration of their driving skills and ability in front of the necessary officials. If deemed suitable to drive by the necessary officials, the applicant will be issued a driver licence. The licence issued will be of a lesser grade to that previously held (i.e. A reduced to B and B reduced to C).
