Mare of the Year

Rhyds Art

Following successful 2YO & 3YO campaigns, she has tasted victory six times this season, clocking 1.59.1 at York. Now retired for Broodmare duties.

Trotter of the Year

Show Business

Newly imported under the Le Trot Series this trotter won the Roosevelt in convincing style, as well as four Le Trot races and the George Dixon Memorial. Never far out of the rankings he has amassed over £9,000 in earnings and is a superb advertisement for the Le Trot initiative

3YO Colt of the Year

Rewrite History

Nine victories from 11 races but him joint Leading Horse for 2015. Earning almost £10,000 his 3YO season has easily equalled, and possibly surpassed, his 2YO racing

3YO Filly of the Year

Shaba Hanover

Winner of the North Wales 3YO Championship and the fillies heat of the 3YO Rising Starzzz, this filly has only been out of the placings once in her nine races

2YO Colt of the Year

Miraculous

This very special colt deserves the nomination in three categories. During his first season he has raced nine times, winning seven and second twice. He has won the York Gold Futurity, Sire Stakes, Breeders Crown, Vincent Delaney Memorial and Rising Starzzz - in the last two he set new track records.

2YO Filly of the Year

Jessies Conquest

Breeders Crown champion (second division), this filly also won the Ceredigion 2YO and the North Wales 2YO Fillies Championship

Overseas Horse of the Year

Meadowbranch DJ

As winner of the Inter Dominion Series, 'DJ' is currently settling in to life 'down under' in preparation for the big stage.

Special Contribution to Harness Racing

Arnie Flower

One half of the main team behind the Pikehall races, he has tirelessly organised racing and sponsorship for many years

Jeff & Margaret Langford

A team who are Track officials, race secretaries, promoters, race organisers and much much more

Davie Douglas

The main commentator for Corbiewood as well as other venues

Alistair Smith

A long standing member of the team behind the Musselburgh fixture, now hanging up his hat and handing over the reins over so he can enjoy his well deserved retirement
