The stewards looked at possible interference leaving the gate between the winner SWEET TRIP who crossed over in front of COALFORD JONNYCASH at which point it looked like he had gone off stride but in fact had broken before the winner had crossed. They also looked at the video approaching the half where Rocker Laidler and Freddie Camden were making a move on the outer flow before Coalford Jonnycash had moved out in front of him. Both incidents were cleared by the stewards and an ALL CLEAR was given.

The Stewards interviewed the trainer of MAHOGANY EBONY, Mr Michael Durkin regarding his horse's performance, Mr Durkin explained that his 3yo filly had been working well away from racing but wasn't interested in racing today, the stewards decided that the horse would have to re-qualify due to not being competitive and completing outside the qualifying time. Mr Durkin accepted this. Mr Watson Harrop was questioned regarding crossing over before the start. Mr Harrop explained that him and his horse QUEST FOR FAME had drawn on the second line and had moved to the inside of the track approaching the starting line due to the fact there was a horse in front of him messing about and he felt that if he hadn't moved then there could have been a possible accident, the stewards accepted Mr Harrop's explanation.
